

Interview with headmaster/educator

Guideline questions

1. Please introduce yourself and your work.
2. How long you have been involved in the education sector with the fisher's community?
3. When and who established this institution and the reason for selecting the site for institutions?
Is there any connection to fishing community and the site?
4. Who maintains and governs the institution? How many such institutions are providing education to fishing community?
5. Where do the students/children of fishing community go for education? Please elaborate availability, accessibility, acceptability and quality of education
6. Please discuss your daily task.
7. Tell us about the educational status of the fishing community, the existing situation, number of enrollments, dropout rate, level of education, variation among boys/girls enrollment and education.
8. Tell us about the perceptions about education among fishing community.
9. How much does a student have to pay for yearly education? What is the axillary cost involved in education for a single student?
10. Can fishing communities afford the cost of education for their children? If not, why?
11. Can you give us a general picture of class attendance (e.g. male/female, tuition fee payment among children across the year)?
12. Any success story among school children? Do the students come from their own will, family will or social pressure?
13. How far is the school from fishing community village? How do they travel? Any challenges to come to school?
14. What attracts and distracts children to study? Is there any variation among male and female?
15. Please discuss teacher and student ratio? Duration of class? Additional help after school? Extra curriculum activity?
16. Do any other children from other community study here? What is the proportion? Social and economic difference and its impact?