

INVITATION

2003 - 2013

Join us in marking 10 years with the Danish-Arab Partnership Programme

For 10 years, the Danish-Arab Partnership Programme has strengthened cooperation and dialogue between a wide range of Danish and Arab partners.

We mark this:
Friday, November 15 at “Dansehallerne” in Copenhagen from 3.30 – 9.00 pm.

Meet a wide range of partners from Denmark, the Middle East and North Africa working to enhance dialogue and cooperation. The programme also includes a debate featuring Minister of Foreign Affairs Villy Søvndal and former Minister of Foreign Affairs Per Stig Møller as well as various cultural features - film, theatre, music and performance by stand-up comedian Omar Marzouk.

The event is free and open to everyone.

What: Marking 10 years with the Danish-Arab Partnership Programme.

When: Friday November 15 from 3.30 to 9 pm.

Where: “Dansehallerne” at Carlsberg. Pasteursvej 14, 2nd Floor, DK-1799 Copenhagen V.

For further information: please contact Ulla Jepsen, uj@cku.dk

Read more at: www.detarabiskeinitiativ.dk

PROGRAM

3.30 – 4:00 PM: Doors open.
Welcome from Minister for Development Cooperation Christian Friis Bach.
Introduction to the 'Open House' by stand-up comedian Omar Marzouk

4.00 – 4.20 PM: Open House
– Meet the organizations behind the Danish-Arab Partnership Programme

4.30 – 5.15 PM: Panel debate on current challenges in the Middle East and North Africa featuring Minister of Foreign Affairs Villy Søvndal and former Minister of Foreign Affairs Per Stig Møller.

5.15 – 6.00 PM: Open House (cont.)

6.00 – 6.20 PM: “Mothers and Daughters” – theatric performance from Jordan.

6.20 – 7.00 PM: Open House (cont.)

7.00 – 7.30 PM: Stand-up comedy by Omar Marzouk

7.30 – 8.00 PM: Open House (cont.)

8.00 – 9.30 PM: Drum performance by Simona Abdallah

8.30 – 9.00 PM: Painting
Performance developed in cooperation with Darb 1718, an Egyptian cultural institution.